Introduction

This training course provides an overview of the duties and responsibilities imposed upon SHE Professionals as contemplated in the Occupational/Mine Health and Safety Act and the regulations issued there under.

Course Objective

This training course will equipment a SHE Professional in enforcing health and safety standards, and ensure a continuous compliance and improvement of standards and employee acceptance and commitment to health and safety.

Target Audience

SHE Professionals

Course Content

- Introduction to the Act
- General duties of the employer and employee
- Extracts from the Regulations
- Delegation of responsibilities – Statutory Assignments
- Overview of Health and Safety Representatives/Committees
- Review of essential documents
- Liability of Manufacturers and Suppliers
- Overview of the Contractor Management
- Inspectors, Investigations and Inquires
- Offences, Penalties and Liability concerns
- Powers and Functions of the inspectorate
- Investigations
- General Legal Liability

- Overview of the Regulations

Duration - 1 Day

Pre-Requisite - None

Please contact Expectra for pricing on these courses