

Introduction

This training course is designed to equip shop floor employees with the fundamentals of a safety, health, environmental and quality management systems.

Course Objective

To equip participants with the dynamics of:

- Hazard identification and risk assessments
- Employee participation on health and safety matters
- Hazard reporting and rectification
- Health and safety management principles

Target Audience

Employees

Course Content

- Health and safety management principles
- Causes and effects of accidents/incidents
- Accident/incident investigation
- Inspections
- Task observations;
- Effective communication;
- Introduction of risk management:
- Objectives of risk management
- Risk management models
- Steps in risk management
- Risk control measures
- Practical hazard identification (group exercise)
- Practical risk assessment (group exercise)

Duration - 1 Day

Pre-Requisite - None

Please contact Expectra for pricing on these courses