

FOR OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY SYSTEMS

Course Objective

Delegates will get working knowledge and understanding on the process of safety management with reference to:

- Understanding the basics of safety management
- Planning for HIRAC
- Risk Control Measures
- Risk Mitigation Techniques
- Continual improvement in the company's High Risk Profiles
- Pro-Active Practical day to day safety management
- Ensure continuous improvements in safety management
- Create a focus on potential high risks

Target Audience

Health and Safety Managers, Safety Officers, Risk Control Officers, Risk Managers, Engineers, Line Managers, Superintendents and Supervisors, Staff with responsibility for Implementing and auditing OHSAS 18001 and Fatal Risk Management Standards, Contractors, Safety Representatives and Auditors.

Contents

- Understanding Safety
- Understanding Hazards and Risks
- Understanding Safety Management systems
- The role of Human Behaviour in Safety
- Understanding Critical Tasks, Fatal and Catastrophic Risks

- Understanding risk control and continuous improvement
- Practical application techniques

Duration - 3 Days

Pre-Requisite - None

Please contact Expectra for pricing on these courses