

FOR OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY SYSTEMS

Course Objective

Delegates will get working knowledge and understanding on:

- The essence of Safety Management Systems
- The role of Management Standards in Safety Governance
- Risk Control Measures and techniques
- The role of Human Behaviour when managing safety
- Continual improvement in the company's High Risk Profiles
- Understand the basics of safety management
- How to plan, perform, report on an audit and to manage enterprise risks

Target Audience

Executive Management:

CEO's, COO's, Mine Managers, Operations Managers, Engineering Managers, Corporate Risk/Safety Managers.

Course Contents

- Understanding Safety and Risk
- Understanding Hazards and Risks
- Understanding Safety Systems and Management Standards
- Changing the Safety Management Culture
- Practical Safety Management
- Managing the critical few
- Setting Meaningful targets and objectives
- Understanding Human Behaviour in Safety

- Self Assessments versus Audits

Duration - 4-5 Days

Pre-Requisite - None

Please contact Expectra for pricing on these courses